

Sofia Del Moral

International Associate

Panama

TEL: +507 2153215

EMAIL: sofia.delmoral@lovill.com

Sofia Del Moral is an international associate at LOVILL and is part of the firm's Corporate and M&A, Banking and Finance, and Tax teams.

Sofia's experience includes advising clients in corporate transactions, commercial contracts, banking and securities regulation, bankruptcy law, and tax matters. She has also advised clients on civil and administrative law matters for international arbitration procedures.

She completed her LL.M. studies on International Financial Law at King's College London Dickson Poon School of Law and completed a Masters in Law (LL.M.) at the Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law. Sofia also has an LL.B. from IE University Law School.

RELEVANT CASES

Formed part of a multijurisdictional legal team representing the State in negotiations with a private entity of the mining industry, one of the biggest commercial relationships between the public and private sector in Panama.

Acted as part of the team of legal advisors of the Panama Canal in an international arbitration procedure.

Provided legal advice in the merger of two investment advising companies, and worked in revising of the merger agreement, preparing all legal documents, and leading enquiries and procedures before regulators.

Assisted a bank in liquidation procedures.

INDUSTRIES

Mining
Shipping
Banking
Securities
Real Estate

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate and M&A
Banking & Finance
Tax
Public and Administrative Law
Arbitration

EDUCATION

King's College London, LL.M. in
International Financial Law, 2020.
Northwestern University, LL.M., 2019.
IE University Law School, LL.B., 2019.

LANGUAGES

English
Spanish
French